CHURCH BOOK
FOR THE
CONGREGATION AT THE MUDDY CREEK
AND COCALICO,

Which, at their urgent request and on the basis of a call, signed by four elders and forty members, I agreed to serve on Maundy Thursday, 1743, upon the principles of our religion, with the preaching of the Gospel and with the Holy Sacraments, in the manner [2] of our Reformers, as it is found in the Theses of the Synod of Bern, edited in the year 1532.

In this book there is found:

- (1) my printed Declaration, on which I stand.
- (2)ly, the first fundamentals, or the fundamental doctrine of salvation, which is necessary for all men to know and to believe.
- (3)ly, the church order, which must be in a Christian congregation, because God is a God of order.
- (4)ly, the names of the children, who were baptized by me in this congregation.

[THE FUNDAMENTALS OF FAITH.]

1. That our whole doctrine [centers in] the one God Jesus Christ, in whom all the fullness of the deity dwells bodily. (Col. 2:5.) Through whom in the beginning the Father, through the Word, became flesh, (Joh.1) the world and all that is therein, founded the earth and prepared the heavens as the work of his hands. (Hebr. 1:8.)
